was happily explained by a resolution of the Councils, thirring no impediment to the impactiate instalment in office, of the newly elected Mayor and Councils, who were qualified accordingly, amidst the cheers of thousands. The democrate are in high gloss, and the defeated party bear their ejection with becoming dignity, without the alighment tign of malginancy.

THERTY-POURTH CONGRESS

Demace.

Washington, May 13, 1856.

markoving natioation at Burigars.

On motion of Mr. Fres, (national) of New York, the Becretary of War was directed to report to the Senate an estimate for the removal of the roses at Harlgate, New York, so as to admit of the passage of vessels of war and the largest class merchantmen, and such other side to navigation as to reader this passage sefs. He gave notice that he should take an early opportunity to introduce a bill providing for carrying out the above object.

The Senate agreed to the report of the Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill.

SQUATINE SOVEREGETY.

Mr. Cass, (dem.) of Mich., concluded his remarks commence yesterday, saying, with regard to Kansna, that the recent troubles in that Territory had not in the heast weakened his faith in the great doctrine of the right of man to govern himself. He condemned the everlasting discussion of the slav.ry question, which was quadramically renewed with increased virulence on the ever of each Presidential election. The South does not medile with the social system of the North, and if the North would follow its example we should be the happiest and most contented as we are to-day, the fleest nection on the face of the globe.

Mr. Clattor, (K. M.) of Del., speaking on the question of the Sound dues, contended that this country ought no longer testubusit to such an exaction. The treaty with Beamark had been abregated, and nothing that could now be said or done would restore it. The notice of the President was mercy that for sixy days after the experience of the year, this country would take no steps on the subject, but such notice did not revive the treaty. Adjourned.

House of Representatives.

House of Representatives.

Washington, May 13, 1856.

DEFENCE OF MR. RUCHANAN.

Mr. JONES, (dem.) of Pa., in reply to remarks of his collegue, Mr. Fuller, denied on unquestionable authority that Mr. Buchanan was chairman of the committee which framed and reported to the meeting at Larcaster resolutions denunciatory of the Missouri compromise.

Mr. Buchanan did not see them till they appeared in prist. During Mr. Polk's administration Mr. Huchanan proposed to extend the Missouri line to the Pacific; but in 1860 he declared that the Compromise measures superseded that line, which construction led inevitably to the adoption of the principles embodied in the Kanasa-Newraska bill. Mr. Jones pointed with gride to the long public life of Mr. Buchanan, who had received emoratums from frue national men for the pure morality of Ms life, and the stern patriotism of his character. The record of democracy is luminous, but would be marred by any attempt to defend it from attacks from any quarter.

Mr. Fuller, (H. N.) of Pa., gave the democratic jour-marred by any attempt to account to democratic jour-any quarter.

Mr. Fuller, (K. N.) of Pa., gave the democratic jour-nals of that State as the authority for his assertion that Mr. Buchana had reported the Lancaster resolutions de-musciatory of the Missouri compromise. It was pub-lished in 1862.

Maked in 1862.

The House adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill, from which had been stricken an appropriation of $300,000 for the continuation of the Washington equeduct.

PRINTING OF THE PATIENT OFFICE REPORT.

Two hundred and ten thousand copies of the agricultural portion of the Patent Office report, were ordered printed.

Mr. Evans, (dem.) of Texas, depicted the fatal consequences to our nationality which must result from the southness spitation of the slavery question, and invoked the South to stand firm in an unbroken phalanx against the invaders of their constitutional rights.

Dropsies are Cured by Brandreth's Fills.—
This form of disease is occasioned by the exhelent arises throwing out a greater quantity of fluid than the absorbents take up. BRANDRETH'S pills convey, by magic, as it were, an impulse to the remote extremities, aroung their absorbents to action, and, in case of swelling or watery deposits there, awakening the sleeping energies at those vessels which, like millions of pumps at work, transmit the mybid fluid to the intestines and urinary passages, effecting a reduction of the dropsical limbs, sometimes in a few hours, and thus affording a striking illustration of the sympathetic action of Brandreth's pills. Thus in dropsics of the stomach, and in all dropsics or cominued enlargements of the joins or limbs, there is nothing in the world to be compared to the effect the striking in the world to be compared to the effect on the referred to in proof of the show.
